1. Any exemption from or reduction of taxes, stamp duties, legal dues or registration fees provided for in the legislation of one Contracting Party in respect of certificates or documents which have to be submitted for the application of this legislation shall be extended also to similar certificates or documents which must be submitted for the application of this Agreement or the legislation of the other Contracting Party.

2. All statements, documents and certificates of any kind which must be submitted for the application of this Agreement shall not require any authentication by diplomatic or consular authorities.

Article 16 Settlement of Disputes

Disputes between the Contracting Parties regarding interpretation or application of this Agreement shall be settled through negotiation and consultation between the Competent Authorities or Liaison Agencies of the Contracting Parties. If disputes are not resolved within a certain period of time, they shall be settled through diplomatic channels.

Article 17 Transitional Provision

In applying Article 6, in case of persons who were posted to a Contracting Party prior to the date of entry into force of this Agreement, the periods of employment referred to in that Article shall be considered to begin on the date of entry into force of this Agreement.

Article 18
Entry into Force

Both Contracting Parties shall notify each other in writing through diplomatic channels that they have completed the internal legal procedures necessary for the entry into force of this Agreement. The Agreement shall enter into force on the first day of the fourth month following the month in which the latter note is received.

Article 19
Duration and Termination

This Agreement shall be in force for an indefinite period of time. Nonetheless, either Contracting Party may terminate the Agreement with a written notice through diplomatic channels. The effect of the Agreement shall terminate on the last day of the twelfth month following the month in which the written notice of its termination is received by the other Contracting Party.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, being duly authorized thereto, have signed this Agreement.

DONE in duplicate at(place) on(date), in German, Chinese and English languages, each text being equally authentic. In case of any divergence of interpretation, the English text shall prevail.
